TIERÄRZTLICHE KLINIK GESSERTSHAUSEN

STATUS 02/26

Important information - In general

- Please present your identity card when registering for the first time.
- Please note our general terms and conditions (displayed in the waiting room, on our homepage).
- It is not permitted to take photos or videos on the clinic premises without authorisation.
- A fee will be charged for appointments cancelled at short notice (at least 24 hours in advance).
- Consignors who culpably hand over animals with hidden, infectious diseases or malignant animals without informing us are liable for any resulting damage.
- The consignor of the animal is obliged to disclose any vices or known intolerances to medication or feed, as well as chronic illnesses and special risks at the time of admission.
- No liability is assumed for accidents, escaping and diseases occurring during the in-patient treatment.
- During its stay in the hospital – in-patient or outpatient – the animal has a third-party liability insurance. Any and all damages caused by the patient to the furniture and equipment or to medical devices are thus covered.
- The attending veterinarian is authorised to carry out any necessary treatment or, in an emergency, a painless euthanasia of the animal also without the explicit consent of the owner. In particular, in case of a treatment emergency, the owner also consents to treat the animal with medication that is not approved for use in animals.
- No liability can be assumed for a successful surgery or treatment result.
- If you leave your horse trailer, equipment and other accessories of your animal with us at the clinic, these items are excluded from any liability.

Important information - Cost overview and payment

- We charge for the services we provide for your pet in accordance with the current scale of fees for veterinarians (Gebührenordnung für Tierärzte - GOT). You will be informed of the costs before treatment begins. The costs for treatments and operations for your pet are due at the end of the consultation or on collection. Please note that increased charges apply for emergency service, night and weekend treatments and emergency operations in accordance with the GOT.
- Invoices must be paid immediately.
- The owner is obliged to collect the animal immediately upon request. An agreed deposit must be paid in cash or by card on collection.
- The veterinary clinic is authorised to retain the animal until the treatment costs have been paid in total.
- The daily rate for boxing and feeding is charged per calendar day.
